

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (1) 2021

	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5	Week 6
YRA	Laurie Sutcliffe Lucas Still	Lexie Hergest - an excellent class role model and a welcoming friend to class RB (joining bubbles). Isla Collings - fantastic phonics this week and a detailed retelling of Jack and the Beanstalk.	Rodrigo Soares-Braddock - living out the value of 'courage' in PE this week (beginning to climb the wall bars with Mrs Arinze, very brave!). Isabel Knight - fantastic focus in maths this week. Comparing numeral pairs on Jack's beanstalk and matching the correct number of beans to the numerals!	George Lott - showing 'perseverance' in maths this week. George is working hard on his number recognition, touch counting & 1:1 correspondence. Evie Robins - showing 'courage' as she settled back in this week & reconnected with her classmates.	Freya Marshall For showing super courage this week - returning to school and reconnecting with her friends. So lovely to have her back! Kai Jenner For really persevering this week in phonics, GOOD BOY!	Mrs Arinze & Mrs Martinger are SUPER PROUD of both reception classes RA & RB! We have walked 56.5 miles combined for our John O'Groats to Land's End challenge and it has been FREEZING! (up to yest 10.2.21).
YRB	Lizzie Clapton Tommy Dowle	Alfie Brown - for great participation during our virtual lessons. Evie Flook - for super reading during guided reading.	Chester Harmon for great work in maths and creating a fantastic jumper for the giant. Dae Williams for his great work in maths on repeating patterns and creating a great pair of trousers for the giant.	Isabel Underwood for great sentence work in phonics and always having a smile on her face! Oliver- James Swankie for lovely reading in Guided Reading and for always producing great quality work at home.	Noah Cook for persevering with virtual learning and for super effort with his writing. Joshua Herbert for always putting 100% effort into his work and for being a ray of sunshine everyday during virtual lessons.	Ben Norman for writing a lovely poem in literacy independently and without Mummy's help. Sophie Parker for fantastic focus in all of her lessons and always producing work to a high standard.
Y1S	Takodah Watkins Ceejay Douglas	Rylee-Jay Ryan Leya Jakutyte (Lay- a Ja-coo-tee-ta)	Ffion Lewarne-Shortman (for always approaching any task with a smile on her face) Barnaby Hayward (for working really hard this week on his sentences using capital letters and full stops independently)	Sophie Winstone - showing outstanding enthusiasm for her remote learning this week (she had her mum up at 5:30am to start her remote learning!) Danaya Pavlinova - shining in all that she does - a kind, patient and hardworking member of 1S.	Elliott Jadali AND Jack Jadali (and their parents) - for always being present online, always contributing and asking great questions. Real home learning superstars! Freddie Francis - for always being online working hard, always contributing in all	Keir Fletcher - For being our resident animal expert, always sharing his animal facts with the class in our Science learning this term. Piper Davis - For her unbridled enthusiasm in every lessons. Mrs Stancombe is so proud of your effort!	single lesson since lockdown started.

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (1) 2021

Y1R	Jack Townsend William Hewins	Tommy Berry – Brilliant online learning. Always contributing and engaging in lessons. Oliver Lettington - Fantastic maths, partitioning number 12.	Cody Chadwick - Great attitude to learning and Fantastic maths. Maja Zbanyszek - Working really hard at home, great contribution during the live lessons.	Pandora Potter - For super reading during guided reading. Callum Sulley - For always participating from home and producing fantastic work.	Chester Francis - For always taking care with his presentation and producing beautiful pieces of work. Emily Stennett - For making good choices in class and using fantastic adjectives in English.	Jude Allen - Working excellently at home, producing amazing pieces of work and contributing fantastic ideas during the online lessons. Edward Arthur - For always having a smile on his face and for being a kind and considerate member of 1R.
Y2K	To all my class and parents for shining through these times!	Amileigh Booth - she has been quietly but conscientiously working away at home and producing some fantastic work! Matthew Dowle - he has been really helpful when starting a new teams meeting by organising the children to be ready for me!	Macie Whitehead - working so hard at home and being supported by her mummy! Harrison Rymer - working hard in Maths and getting to Stretch it and giving clear and concise answers!	Connie Hodges - for making excellent effort and concentrating in all subjects this week! Leyla Clothier - excellent attendance with online learning and fantastic contributions to the lessons!	Kian Clutterbuck – Always engaging whether at home or at school and for having such polite manners. Effie McGuinness – For persevering with online technology during home schooling.	Ted Lever - excellent contributions to online learning at all times. Vi Harmer - super concentration in class and always being ready for the next task!
Y2H	To all 2H - for amazing patience and commitment to understanding on line learning and a different form seen in class. 2H parents - for understanding that we are all new at this, we are all learning and being patient with technical issues both at school and at home.	Amelia Simmonds – For her dedication and commitment to all online learning as well as using the functions to raise hand, unmute to contribute in class. Orlah Corbally – For super listening skills in class and contributing in a very different style of teaching/ learning.	River Sparrow – Amazing, super clear, sentence writing. Sounding out words clearly and giving 110% this week in English, within class. Amazing River! Caia Cook – For being a solid rock in her home learning. Putting 110% into every lesson and contributing fully in discussion	George Hanman-Berry – for some super explanations in Maths on the inverse. Freddie Portlock – For some super returned work in Science from online learning. Well done.	Isaac Allen – For an incredible Non Chronological report on Lions, including excellent presentation. Isabelle Butcher – For superb contribution in all class discussions and explaining her reasons for answers in Maths. Well done	Harley Rymer – For superb comparing of weight g to kg and ordering. Fantastic! Charlie James – Rea – For super contribution to class discussions and always being a helping hand showing our school values. Well done!

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (1) 2021

Y3W	Isolating	Darcey Hitchman Maisey Williams Olivia Rymer For getting on with their learning really well this week in 3MR.	Elizabeth Price – for always giving fantastic answers when she is in school and constantly working really hard, Happy Birthday! Sophia Mulcahy – for always participating from home and contributing to discussions we have as a class	Zac Forsythe – for reading with fantastic expression and recognising where to take a breath depending on punctuation Mack Stewart – for participating more in lessons and contributing to discussion	Jacob Williams – For working so hard during his 1:1 sessions with Mrs Evans and giving some fantastic answers during Guided Reading. Anastasia Komnatskaya – For contributing to discussion in Guided Reading and always thinking 'outside of the box'	Alfie Baker – For always getting on with his work independently and adapting to life in 3MR Georgia – For always being so engaged during our online lessons and putting 100% effort into the work she submits
Y3MR	Michael Stennett - Ethan Miles All of the parents at home for doing an amazing job of home schooling	Lewis Arthur – for creating a detailed story plan from the view of Little Red Riding Hood. Harrison Brown – great work on fractions.	Avery White – for always being an enthusiastic learner. Sophia Barnes for a great contribution during our guided reading sessions	Amayah Moosajee for great participation and enthusiasm during her home learning lessons. Adedoyin Adegboye - Ayegbe – for improved handwriting and listening and acting on advice.	Lewis Arthur – for showing great enthusiasm in all areas of learning and making great improvements in handwriting. Finley Crowther – for showing great enthusiasm during our teams sessions and always ready to contribute.	Ella Robinson and Sophie Robinson – for always being ready to learn, prepared and happy to contribute during every single online learning lesson. Amelia Hookway – for being a polite, enthusiastic and sensible member of the class who can always be relied on to do the right thing.
Y4C	Alfie Berry Jorja McLoughlin	Koby Douglas for amazing contributions to lessons in English and Maths Daniel Mulrain for submitting work of an excellent standard	Joe Batten for always having a positive and cheerful approach to all his learning. Brings the sunshine inside. Issy Brown for fantastic work produced at home and sorting out children's IT problems. 4C's HOME TA.	Oscar Rickards for excellent participation in all lessons especially maths. Kira Rostas - for submitting work of a high standard including some wonderfully illustrated RE.	Ollie Wakefield for producing imaginative sentences using relative clauses and powerful verbs Elisha Lewis for great improvement in her reading and using a variety of strategies to decipher unknown words.	Valerija Solovjova for clear and expressive reading and a wonderful actor, playing all the parts in her own rendition of Little Red Riding Hood. Noah Hunter for always demonstrating great enthusiasm and hunger to learn in all subjects. A delightful member of the class.

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (1) 2021

Y4G	All the class	Maddie partridge and Ava Cook. Both for showing excellent continued focus while on line.	Ellie Smithers, and Joshua Gomez, for consistently doing their best in every lesson.	Lillie Sparrow and Jorge Goncalves. They are always positive in the face of any challenge, and have brought a smile into the classroom every day.	Myla Alexander, for being attentive and giving 110% in her on line learning. Jenson Westcarr for really applying himself, especially in maths, and cheering up the rest of the class every day.	Ellie Smithers again for going the extra mile to extend herself, making the most of every task she is set and writing a topical and beautifully constructed playscript. Kai Radford, for not giving in, even when the internet goes down! Stick with it Kai.
Y4W	All the class and parents	Maya Gallop – for writing a brilliant and engaging first person narrative. Ava-Mai Corbally – For being enthusiastic, engaged and offering great ideas in all lessons from home!	Evie Carter – for writing a descriptive setting description. Zachary Allen – for being enthsaustic and motivated in all lessons from home.	. Elizabeth Foy-Gresty – for being a technical whizz and helping those at home with any problems. Mia Clutterbuck – for showing great perseverance with her maths	Samuel Gura – for always bringing a positive attitude into the classroom. Isla King – for writing a brilliant playscript	Finlay Hayward – for brilliant maths work this week and not backing down from a challenge. Declan Franklin – for working hard from home and handing in some brilliant pieces of work.
Y5H	All children and parents for being amazing! Mrs Cheshire-for keeping us all going with flapjack!	Olivia Potter – taking part in discussions about the characters in Macbeth Archie Geeves – keeping everyone buoyant with his sense of humour!	Rubi Harmon and Preia Challenger Inventing creative sentences in our Macbeth writing and for being willing to share ideas over TEAMS.	Riley Johnson and Emilie-Marie Nastase – always ready to respond over TEAMS and share ideas with the class.	Ollie Krzan – for being able to take on any challenge he has been given. Dolly Stewart for being a great role model as a Learning Partner.	Evie Williams and Hannah Tremeer – for bringing a bit of sparkle to online learning with their personalaities!
Y5P	Whole class as everyone has had to work hard and cope with lots this week.	Esther Hewins – For being a great support and working well with others Emily Carne – For getting on so well with remote	Noah Knight for being such a great help in the classroom and having such a positive attitude.	Harley Jenner has been making super progress in all lessons, including completing solve its, and answering	Heidi Crowther for working enthusiastically on TEAMS and always on	Emmeline Chan – for producing consistently excellent work on TEAMS in all learning generally and answering lots of questions.	Lola Callinan for offering to answer lots of questions and making valuable contributions to class discussions	questions and reading aloud with confidence and enthusiasm. Ruby Woodhouse for her willingness to share ideas and to read frequently over TEAMS	hand to help answer questions. Alesha Ahmad for working with positivity in the classroom and working with a smile.	subjects, including so me beautiful artwork. Julia Huber for always responding in such a positive, enthusiastic way and cheering everyone up.

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (1) 2021

Y6W	All at home and at school: special shout out to Mrs Smith – Mia's mum, for being my guinea pig!	Tegan Smart – for persevering with on-line learning despite technical difficulties- and great work on Natural Disasters. Joe Cruise – for coming into school with a smile – despite the fact he would far rather be at home!	Chloe Stower for her enthusiasm, hard work and for being my (other) right-hand in the classroom (with a nod to Mrs Mustoe!) Connor Harron for excellent contributions during our “live” maths sessions and for continuing to smile for the camera!	Sophie Wells, for her fabulous Hinduism PowerPoint presentation and her art, done with the help of an APP! Great use of technology. Jasmine Mitchell-Stead for brilliant creative writing based on “The Hobbit” and for being so cheerful in class!	Gabi Sciglo-Pitt and Harley Lambert. Both have continued to produce work of a fantastic standard at home and can always be relied upon to make excellent contributions during our live teaching and learning sessions. Thank you both!	Mia Smith, for consistently accessing on-line learning enthusiastically, and always submitting work – on time! Ethan Stacey, for adapting well to being in school with only a small group and for excellent poetry in the style of Michael Rosen
Y6HJ	All of the class and parents	Charlie Birch and Olivia Miller – whether at home or in school, these two are both thoroughly engaged in their learning and producing fantastic work Well done!	Chloe Gorrett for working really hard to focus in lessons and improve presentation – her handwriting has been so neat this week! Shannon Pillinger for excellent online learning, especially Guided Reading and writing. Well done, both!	Nathan Lamb for persevering with our tricky maths work on subtracting fractions – well done! Daniel Prior-Cox for superb focus and engagement in lessons and fabulous work in Guided Reading in particular.	Both Gabrielle Gomes and Harley Connolly have been working so incredibly hard at home, producing some really super work and contributing great ideas to our online lessons.	Parker Brogden for outstanding contributions to our online lessons –he is always keen to share his super ideas! Ade Adegboye-Aylegbe for an excellent attitude to learning in school. He consistently works so hard in every subject and is incredibly helpful too!