

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2021

	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5	Week 6
YRA	Phoebe Morris super addition, counting groups of objects to find a total and recognising that when you add the number gets bigger. Ct super effort in her phonics group this week!	I would like the shine award to go to all 27 children who have been in school with me from both RA & RB. They have truly been amazing, worked their little socks off and made me smile every day . Mrs Arinze & Mrs Martinger are SO very proud of you ALL! KEEP ON SHINING!	Our two lovely pupil's Iyanna Chettle and Peaches Singh who joined our class this week. Both girls have showed great courage, starting a new school after lockdown and not knowing anyone in class. Well done girls!	Basia Swoboda Working hard in her phonic and number sessions, really persevering! Keep it up Basia! Cruz Campbell Settling back into class with a good attitude to learning. Cruz is a new big brother and doing a fantastic job too!	Mason Reynolds-Sysum for his fantastic moves in our 'Boom Chicka Boom' Easter dance session! Oscar Marles For his fantastic progress in phonics and reading. Amazing work Oscar!	Chester Clutterbuck for his positive attitude to learning. Keep it up Chester! Annabella Wilson For her super rhyming sentences for Humpty Dumpty!
YRB	Molly Collins for persevering with virtual learning and for lovely phonics work with Mrs Bevan Joseph Lester for adapting well to virtual learning and for returning high quality work.	Lucas Still for always willing to participate in virtual lessons and for brilliant work in maths – solving word problems. Lily Collins for super effort in Guided Reading this week.	Benjiman Norman for fantastic work in his writing, using his phonic knowledge to write beautiful descriptive sentences about the hungry caterpillar. Sara Elliot for super hard work this week. She impressed us by identifying 2D using their properties and working hard with Mrs Thomas and Bevan is her phonics.	Isla Collings - For showing perseverance and concentration in her beautiful re-telling of the story . Lizzie Clapham - For caring and respecting the environment by cleaning up rubbish in the school grounds and her local park.	Mia Brooks for having such a positive attitude towards her learning and always trying her best! Evie Robins for making amazing progress in phonics which has improved her writing and reading skills.
Y1S	Genevieve Hodges For being a respectful listener and talented sportswoman in our Montague PE lessons.	Freddie Francis - For never missing a lesson throughout the entirety of lockdown and dressing up as Peter	Amelia Grzywna - For excellent courage coming back into school and working hard in lockdown,	Sophie Winstone – amazing effort when writing instructions on	Cory Baker – making amazing progress in his writing this term and working hard to write a	Keira Towse

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2021

	Shanay Barnes - For working independently in English lessons producing some beautiful sentences.	Pan for World Book Day, Fantastic Effort throughout! Miles Mazelin-Browne - for making Mrs Mansfield and Mrs Stancombe proud with your progress this term. We cannot wait to see you again!	making great progress in her writing. Alysha Daniels - For working really hard on her writing of instructions on how to make a fruit salad.	how to plant a sunflower Poppy Davis - excellent effort when writing instructions on how to plant a sunflower	lovely setting description this week. Elizabeth Phelpstead - super improvement in her handwriting this term, well done!	Oskar Wasilewski
Y1R	Matthew Ellins - For working really hard at home since January and producing fantastic pieces of work. Athena Harmer - For great listening in maths, when finding $\frac{1}{2}$ of objects.	Freya Graham - Fantastic work in maths, especially on the 'stretch its' James Roberts - Always coming into school with a smile on his face and for being a lovely member of 1R.	Tola Odofin For always trying her best and producing beautiful pieces of work! Nylah Sterling-McDowell Amazing counting in maths when partitioning numbers 16 and 17.	Tyler Hawkins- Fantastic attitude to learning since returning to school and completing work independently. Hugo Mitton- For great courage coming back to school and setting into school routine.	Florence Holland- Fantastic effort using beautiful adjectives when describing a setting. Ben Zajac- Amazing progression in maths this term!	Ava- Rose Gaulder- Fantastic determination and effort in maths. William Hewins- Always trying his hardest in class, especially contributing on the carpet.
Y2K	Elle-Grace Evans- excellent effort in Maths and for working on her presentation this wee Nate Kingston- excellent effort during home learning and a keenness to contribute to the lessons.	Alyssa Workman- excellent presentation in Maths. Nesiah Gbejewoh- Doing a fantastic job working online and having a positive attitude	Reggie Glynn- excellent effort with his phonics and number work this week. Keep this great attitude going Reggie! Nevaeh Angus- for being a super helper at lunchtimes!	Ted Lever- for having a consistent attitude to all he attempts Daniel Ellins- Fantastic improvement in his writing, producing an excellent fantasy story!	Arlind Ferizolli- trying hard to be considerate and having a positive attitude. Emilia Barnes- excellent progress with her reading, writing and phonics	Leyla Clothier- Excellent effort in English; writing a story with a moral in it. Macie Whitehead- Using similes in her writing
Y2H	George Hanman-Berry - For some super explanations	Henry Hann - For being the Fraction King	Hollie Ashmore - For outstanding follow up work in guided	Lara Gallop - For being such a role model in behaviour in	Jessica Mae Bailey - For super concentration in Maths MOT and showing	Morgan Jefferies - For really super involvement in and description of vocabulary words in our guided reading session. Maisie Kitson – For excellent comparisons using greater than/ less than on length.	with working out 1/3 of a given amount. Sebastian Le Page – For amazing descriptive sentences in our oral work using both extended noun phrases and similes	reading, writing in whole sentences and excellent presentation. Hendrix Bennett – For contributing in maths conversations and showing excellent understanding of fractions.	class. Always getting on with her work and respectful to her peers. Evelyn Phelpstead – For super descriptive writing using similes and extended noun phrases.	clear working's out of methods. Leo Pilipczuk - For super understanding of conjunctions and able to use a variety in sentences.	our English lesson sharing ideas. Sofia Mathers – For super reading in our Guided reading sessions and discussions about the book.

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2021

Y3W	Lexie Dix for always being so positive and enthusiastic to learn online, and showing fantastic phonics knowledge while working with Mrs Evans. Rowan Jaggard for demonstrating fantastic times tables knowledge which has helped him a lot in our maths lessons this week.	Ava-Mae Astle for working really hard on her handwriting and finger spaces, keep it up! Maisie Hanks for always being so positive and enthusiastic during our online lessons, and always being willing to add to discussion.	I am nominating the whole of 3W for showing such positivity and resilience all week. They have come back with smiles on their faces and it's lovely to see!	Clemency Chan – for showing consistent determination and effort across all areas of the curriculum and always being such a positive member of the class Felix Harmon – for always being a great role model and for presenting his work to the highest standard	TJ – for making positive choices with his behaviour and showing a great attitude towards maths this week Evie – for writing a story independently, using a range of adjectives and in chronological order	Olivia – for having a better ethos towards school and coming in positive and smiling Alfie – for always persevering and putting in 100% effort to any task he is given
Y3MR	Lucas Workman for going above and beyond by completing extra work over half term. Noah Williams for being an all-round superstar. You have really impressed Miss Thomas and Mrs	Sienna Marles for always being a polite, reliable and conscientious member of the class and helping Mrs Brumfield over the last eight weeks with teams. Harley Evans – for always having a smile	All of 3MR for having an amazing attitude towards learning and demonstrating to the rest of the school how to line up smartly, quietly and quickly.	Aaliyah Ahmad – for having an amazing attitude and super smile every morning in school. Polly Green – for always having a positive and conscientious attitude	Lilah Tanner and Lewis Arthur – for being great learning partners, always ready to learn and support each other. Lottie Geeves – for being a kind friend and a great 'Matilda' when reading DEAR.	Markus Naglis – for always having a great attitude towards his learning and being a polite, helpful member of the class. Emma Sutton – for being a kind and helpful friend/

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2021

	Brumfield by working conscientiously all week in school and at home!	and showing great enthusiasm during his online learning.		towards her work and being respectful in all aspects of school life.
Y4C	Anais Golden for demonstrating wonderful enthusiasm to learn in all subjects and for being a super member of the class. Lewis Webb for writing imaginatively and always being prepared to offer answers or explanations.	Riley Greenfield for working independently and demonstrating a keenness and enthusiasm to complete set activities. Bethany Breary for writing a well-structured persuasive letter to the judge after she, Goldilocks, had been cautioned for trespassing.	Addy Leach for coming back with a great attitude and is shining in every lesson. Jacob John Scrivens for taking time in a PE lesson to help children with their football skills. He demonstrated great compassion and kindness.	Ryan Tierney for a brilliant attitude towards his learning and quietly completing activities to a high standard and smiling. Ollie Wakefield for listening to advice on how to improve scores in tests and for just being a mature and lovely member of the class	Koby Douglas for adopting an amazing attitude to learning and for being a brilliant member of the class. Skye Mather for working hard in lessons to complete activities and scoring well in the maths test.	Ellie Birch for completing all her work this week with a wonderful attitude and scoring a hat trick in football yesterday. Joe Batten for his mature and sensible attitude. A brilliant role model for the class.
Y4G	Jeet Jadeja, for going the extra mile to solve maths problems, and applying previous learning with great intelligence. Anthony Kuchajewicz for showing great empathy for the characters in our reading book, and applying this in inferring how they are feeling from some of their actions.	I'd like to recognise all of 4G, children and parents for surviving Lockdown and keeping going through difficult times. Well done everyone! You are all stars!	Oliver Hood, for managing to smile and maintain his focus when circumstances conspire to distract him. Jake Newman, for showing a real maturity and empathy in his approach to his guided reading. Keep it up Jake	Shay Banks for making a huge effort to work independently more often, especially when that work involves writing. Mason Lawrence, for being an excellent Role model and making an excellent return to school after home learning.	Imogen Lewis – for achieving a very pleasing result in her maths assessment, and for not letting a difficult year get in the way of her progress. Josh Payne – who has continued to smile and be positive despite many challenges that he has faced during lockdown.	Maddie Partridge and Ellie Smithers for a spontaneous act of great kindness in the playground. They noticed that one of their peers was alone and they made the decision to invite this person to play with them. It was lovely to see and I was very proud of them both!

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2021

Y4W	Rose Warriner – for working extremely hard and giving 110% in everything that she does. Lucas Sulley – for being enthusiastic and motivated during online lessons.	Ava-Mai Corbally – For writing a brilliant persuasive letter in English. Summer Rickards-Addis – for always being cheerful, motivated and courageous when facing challenges.	I would like to nominate the whole class for showing resilience and courage in the first week back. Everyone has come into school each day full of positive energy.	Daisy East – for showing great enthusiasm with her reading every day. Cyrus Sterling-McDowell – for never backing down to any challenge.	Finlay Hayward – for going above and beyond in everything he does. Elizabeth Foy-Gresty – for being the perfect role model for everyone else in the room.	Isla King – for going above and beyond in everything she does. A great role model for the rest of the class. Mia Clutterbuck – for reading excellently with expression in our guided reading sessions.
Y5H	Freddy Hodges – for overcoming challenges and fears. Jacob Allen – for his cheerful character over TEAMS	Harrison Boyce – for setting the benchmark in healthy eating by making his own awesome salads for lunch! Charlotte Townsend for always being ready to learn and think on her feet – a really super skill!	Summer Brown – for settling in well to her new school, despite lockdown, making friends and taking part in all activities. Jade Edwards – for engaging with her work and taking on challenges.	Jacob Adams – for really pushing himself in Maths and increasing in confidence. Ava Ajayi – for always being positive about learning and bringing a mature attitude to the classroom.	Max Sutton – for applying himself in Maths and researching nanometres at home! Maddie Schmitz – for shining in writing – working hard to apply the skills we are learning in her writing.	Izzy Hann – for showing great determination and wanting to succeed in her work! Neha Kandimalla – for always trying her hardest and shining in all areas!
Y5P	Georgia Robinson and Taylor Gittins – for working consistently well on TEAMS and producing high quality work.	Libby Marsh – has been making valuable contributions to all lessons and explaining complex vocabulary definitions. Georgina Berriman – for working confidently in maths and explaining fractions and decimal conversions.	Lacey Page – for displaying huge amounts of enthusiasm for being back at school. Kaeda-Mae Hayward-Belger for working really hard and applying herself brilliantly since being back in school.	Samuel Limbrick – Has settled in well and is working hard in lessons. Well done! Lacie White – has been showing great levels of perseverance and a desire to work independently	Ruby Woodhouse – for producing outstanding and insightful answers in guided reading this week. Noah Knight – for having a positive attitude to school and for being calmer and more respectful in lessons.	Amelie Lever – for having a really positive attitude to school and answering lots of questions in class. Daisy Burns – for putting much more effort in and producing good quality work.
Y6W	Felicity Farr – for Never Giving Up: even when a new topic	Raiden Pun: for his active participation in all online learning and	Oliver Limbrick – for settling into his new school brilliantly: he	Theo Dennett – for being one of those	Gabi Sciglo-Pitt and Jasmine Mitchell-Stead for embodying everything that SHINE stands	Tegan Smart and Chloe Stower for being lovely! Both of causes a problem, Flick sticks at it and is always delighted when she works it out. Well done! Charley Mihell – for Striving for Excellence. Charley has consistently produced excellent work at home – submitting it in a wide variety of ways – and he always does his best and aims high.	for continuing to behave sensibly and politely despite not being in class. Zak Brain: for making fabulous progress with his reading and maths. Zak has also produced some outstanding artwork linked to “The Boy, The Mole, The Fox and the Horse.”	has already made friends and is displaying an excellent work ethic. Well done Ollie! Charlie Tutt – for showing a real enthusiasm for being back at school and for continuing to build on the excellent progress he had made in all areas of the curriculum pre-lockdown.	children who constantly shines; but does it quietly. He is funny, hardworking and polite – a pleasure to teach. Martina Gospodinov: a great example to those around her. Martina works conscientiously and is always striving to do her very best. Well done.	for. They both demonstrate, on a daily basis, that they are “secondary school ready” in the way that they strive for excellence and never give up. They should be a real inspiration to those around them and their attitude to school is superb!	them approach everything with a smile on their face: they work hard and as a result have been making excellent progress. A pleasure to teach them both.

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2021

Y6HJ	Alfie Meecham – for being my ‘right hand man’ over the last few weeks. He is always ready to help out with any technical issues and is super engaged and involved in every lesson! Chloe Winstone for working so incredibly hard at home since January. She is producing some really lovely work and is happy to contribute to all of our lessons.	Amy King for fantastic engagement and effort in all of our online learning. She has been an absolute star! Amira Ahmad for working so incredibly hard this term. She is always focused and is producing a super standard of work. Well done to both!	Zach Kingston and Rosie Trafford – both are shining examples of model Year Sixes! They are polite, helpful, conscientious, kind and are always striving for (and often achieving) excellence!	Daniel Prior-Cox for superb focus and effort in every lesson. He is particularly shining in Guided Reading! Ryan Plane for a fantastic positive attitude in lessons since he’s been back in school. He is really working hard and demonstrating his true potential!	Charlie Birch for super focus and hard work in every lesson. He has particularly excelled in writing taking lots of care with punctuation and presentation – well done! Ollie Tyack for working hard to increase his pace of work and complete lesson tasks in the time allowed without sacrificing quality – well done!	Oliver Hart and Tilly Roderick for being perfect pupils! They are both exceptionally hard working, enthusiastic, polite and kind.