

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2020

	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5	Week 6
YRA	Phoebe Morris super addition, counting groups of objects to find a total and recognising that when you add the number gets bigger. Ct super effort in her phonics group this week!	I would like the shine award to go to all 27 children who have been in school with me from both RA & RB. They have truly been amazing, worked their little socks off and made me smile every day. Mrs Arinze & Mrs Martinger are SO very proud of you ALL! KEEP ON SHINING!	Our two lovely pupil's Iyanna Chettle and Peaches Singh who joined our class this week. Both girls have showed great courage, starting a new school after lockdown and not knowing anyone in class. Well done girls!
YRB	Molly Collins for persevering with virtual learning and for lovely phonics work with Mrs Bevan Joseph Lester for adapting well to virtual learning and for returning high quality work.	Lucas Still for always willing to participate in virtual lessons and for brilliant work in maths – solving word problems. Lily Collins for super effort in Guided Reading this week.	Benjiman Norman for fantastic work in his writing, using his phonic knowledge to write beautiful descriptive sentences about the hungry caterpillar. Sara Elliot for super hard work this week. She impressed us by identifying 2D using their properties and working hard with Mrs Thomas and Bevan is her phonics.
YIS	Genevieve Hodges For being a respectful listener and talented sportswoman in our Montague PE lessons. Shanay Barnes - For working independently in English lessons producing some	Freddie Francis - For never missing a lesson throughout the entirety of lockdown and dressing up as Peter Pan for World Book Day, Fantastic Effort throughout! Miles Mazelin-Browne - for making Mrs Mansfield	Amelia Grzywna - For excellent courage coming back into school and working hard in lockdown, making great progress in her writing. Alysha Daniels - For working really hard on her writing of beautiful sentences,	and Mrs Stancombe proud with your progress this term. We cannot wait to see you again!	instructions on how to make a fruit salad.

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2020

Y1R	Matthew Ellins - For working really hard at home since January and producing fantastic pieces of work. Athena Harmer - For great listening in maths, when finding $\frac{1}{2}$ of objects.	Freya Graham - Fantastic work in maths, especially on the 'stretch its' James Roberts - Always coming into school with a smile on his face and for being a lovely member of 1R.	Tola Odofin For always trying her best and producing beautiful pieces of work! Nylah Sterling-McDowell Amazing counting in maths when partitioning numbers 16 and 17.
Y2K	Elle-Grace Evans- excellent effort in Maths and for working on her presentation this wee Nate Kingston- excellent effort during home learning and a keenness to contribute to the lessons.	Alyssa Workman- excellent presentation in Maths. Nesiah Gbejewoh- Doing a fantastic job working online and having a positive attitude	Reggie Glynn- excellent effort with his phonics and number work this week. Keep this great attitude going Reggie! Nevaeh Angus- for being a super helper at lunchtimes!
Y2H	George Hanman-Berry – For some super explanations and description of vocabulary words in our guided reading session. Maisie Kitson – For excellent comparisons using greater than/ less than on length.	Henry Hann – For being the Fraction King with working out $\frac{1}{3}$ of a given amount. Sebastian Le Page – For amazing descriptive sentences in our oral work using both extended noun phrases and similes	Hollie Ashmore – For outstanding follow up work in guided reading, writing in whole sentences and excellent presentation. Hendrix Bennett – For contributing in maths conversations and showing excellent understanding of fractions.
Y3W	Lexie Dix for always being so positive and enthusiastic to learn	Ava-Mae Astle for working really hard on her handwriting and finger	I am nominating the whole of 3W for showing such positivity online, and showing fantastic phonics knowledge while working with Mrs Evans. Rowan Jaggard for demonstrating fantastic times tables knowledge which has helped him a lot in our maths lessons this week.	spaces, keep it up! Maisie Hanks for always being so positive and enthusiastic during our online lessons, and always being willing to add to discussion.	and resilience all week. They have come back with smiles on their faces and it's lovely to see!

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2020

Y3MR	Lucas Workman for going above and beyond by completing extra work over half term. Noah Williams for being an all-round superstar. You have really impressed Miss Thomas and Mrs Brumfield by working conscientiously all week in school and at home!	Sienna Marles for always being a polite, reliable and conscientious member of the class and helping Mrs Brumfield over the last eight weeks with teams. Harley Evans – for always having a smile and showing great enthusiasm during his online learning.	All of 3MR for having an amazing attitude towards learning and demonstrating to the rest of the school how to line up smartly, quietly and quickly.
Y4C	Anais Golden for demonstrating wonderful enthusiasm to learn in all subjects and for being a super member of the class. Lewis Webb for writing imaginatively and always being prepared to offer answers or explanations.	Riley Greenfield for working independently and demonstrating a keenness and enthusiasm to complete set activities. Bethany Breary for writing a well-structured persuasive letter to the judge after she, Goldilocks, had been cautioned for trespassing.	Addy Leach for coming back with a great attitude and is shining in every lesson. Jacob John Scrivens for taking time in a PE lesson to help children with their football skills. He demonstrated great compassion and kindness.
Y4G	Jeet Jadeja, for going the extra mile to solve maths problems, and applying	I'd like to recognise all of 4G, children and parents for surviving Lockdown	Oliver Hood, for managing to smile and maintain his focus when

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2020

	previous learning with great intelligence. Anthony Kuchajewicz for showing great empathy for the characters in our reading book, and applying this in inferring how they are feeling from some of their actions.	and keeping going through difficult times. Well done everyone! You are all stars!	circumstances conspire to distract him. Jake Newman, for showing a real maturity and empathy in his approach to his guided reading. Keep it up Jake
Y4W	Rose Warriner – for working extremely hard and giving 110% in everything that she does. Lucas Sulley – for being enthusiastic and motivated during online lessons.	Ava-Mai Corbally – For writing a brilliant persuasive letter in English. Summer Rickards-Addis – for always being cheerful, motivated and courageous when facing challenges.	I would like to nominate the whole class for showing resilience and courage in the first week back. Everyone has come into school each day full of positive energy.
Y5H	Freddy Hodges – for overcoming challenges and fears. Jacob Allen – for his cheerful character over TEAMS	Harrison Boyce – for setting the benchmark in healthy eating by making his own awesome salads for lunch! Charlotte Townsend for always being ready to learn and think on her feet – a really super skill!	Summer Brown – for settling in well to her new school, despite lockdown, making friends and taking part in all activities. Jade Edwards – for engaging with her work and taking on challenges.
Y5P	Georgia Robinson and Taylor Gittins – for working consistently well on TEAMS and producing high quality work.	Libby Marsh – has been making valuable contributions to all lessons and explaining complex vocabulary definitions. Georgina Berriman – for working confidently in maths and explaining fractions and decimal	Lacey Page – for displaying huge amounts of enthusiasm for being back at school. Kaeda-Mae Hayward-Belger for working really hard and applying herself brilliantly since being back in school.

SHINE AWARDS SPRING TERM (2) 2020

		conversions.
Y6W	Felicity Farr – for Never Giving Up: even when a new topic causes a problem, Flick sticks at it and is always delighted when she works it out. Well done! Charley Mihell – for Striving for Excellence. Charley has consistently produced excellent work at home – submitting it in a wide variety of ways – and he always does his best and aims high.	Raiden Pun: for his active participation in all online learning and for continuing to behave sensibly and politely despite not being in class. Zak Brain: for making fabulous progress with his reading and maths. Zak has also produced some outstanding artwork linked to “The Boy, The Mole, The Fox and the Horse.”	Oliver Limbrick – for settling into his new school brilliantly: he has already made friends and is displaying an excellent work ethic. Well done Ollie! Charlie Tutt – for showing a real enthusiasm for being back at school and for continuing to build on the excellent progress he had made in all areas of the curriculum pre-lockdown.
Y6HJ	Alfie Meecham – for being my ‘right hand man’ over the last few weeks. He is always ready to help out with any technical issues and is super engaged and involved in every lesson! Chloe Winstone for working so incredibly hard at home since January. She is producing some really lovely work and is happy to contribute to all of our lessons.	Amy King for fantastic engagement and effort in all of our online learning. She has been an absolute star! Amira Ahmad for working so incredibly hard this term. She is always focused and is producing a super standard of work. Well done to both!	Zach Kingston and Rosie Trafford – both are shining examples of model Year Sixes! They are polite, helpful, conscientious, kind and are always striving for (and often achieving) excellence!			